Review of 2013

January

■ SOUTHEND Airport was rated the best in Europe by easyJet's passengers.

More than 26,000 passengers were asked for their opinion when travelling through the region's newest airport and it resulted in a satisfaction score of 92 per cent.

The results beat scores from more than one hundred airports across Europe, including other airports in the region such as Luton, Gatwick and Stansted.

The survey was held across all European airports, with travellers asked to rate services like the check-in process, aircraft, punctuality, boarding procedures, overall satisfaction with the airport and friendliness of the easyJet crew.

The research showed that 95 per cent were satisfied with Southend Airport, 98 per cent were satisfied with the length of time at check-in and 100 per cent of passengers were satisfied with the efficiency of check-in staff.

■ Bad weather forced parents to take the day off of work to look after children whose schools were closed.

Only five schools in Southend were closed with the remaining 50 in the borough remaining open. Southend council's head of support and preventative services, Jane Theadom, said the policy was that schools should make every effort to remain open.

■ SOUTHEND Council announced The Focal Point Gallery would be moved from Southend

Library to the Forum, at a cost of £500,000. The news came in the same month the council announced £6.5million worth of cuts to public services and 60 redundancies. Local artist and exhibitor John Bulley was shocked: "On top of the cuts, and the pier being closed for two days it seems mad such a high investment is being made in a gallery no-one visits."

March

■ SOUTHEND was put on a short-list of 11 urban centres to become UK 'City of Culture' 2017. Southend councillor for culture and tourism Derek Jarvis said there was so much to offer in Southend.

He said: "We feel we truly deserve to be City of Culture 2017. "The judging panel for our previous bid recommended Southend as a possible candidate for 2017, so we look forward to preparing an excellent submission."

■ SOUTHEND council announced it could close five of the boroughs libraries in a bid to save money.

The authority said it needed to save £378,000 from the library services as part of more than a £10million budget cut.

A public consultation was launched, with a final decision to be taken in September. The review also stated that Central library, in Victoria Avenue, should close when the new Forum library opens in town.

Mark Sharp, of Saxon King in Priory Park (SKIPP), said it was ironic the council was proposing to shut down libraries when it is also bidding for the 'City of Culture'.

■ The first batch of the world's

MAKING A NOISE: Mark Sharp, Sheena Walker, and Patsy Link, who opposed plans to close libraries biggest robotic cranes arrived on London's doorstep.

The giant quay cranes are two-and-a-half times the height of Nelson's column and used to unload cargo from ships at the DP World London Gateway Port. But because there is no crane big enough to unload the 138-metre machines, engineers used an ancient system of weights, pulleys, tracks and rollers – similar to that used by the ancient Egyptians to build the Great Pyramids – to slide the giant structures onto the dock. Weighing in at 2,000 tonnes, the machinery spent its mammoth three-month journey from China standing upright on the ship Zhen Hua 26.

■ THE new Cultural Centre at the end of Southend pier hosted a dual exhibition. Photographer Niki Cornish and artist Darren Jones teamed up to bring the show called 'Believe' to the centre.

■ SOUTHEND Airport announced it would start flying to Venice in the middle of February. Customers checking in for the flight were treated to pizza and ice cream and serenaded by opera singers before they took off. Hugh Aitken, easyJet's UK commercial manager said Venice is one of Italy's most visited leisure destinations.

■ THE YA found out Southend Council made more than £22 million from car parking charges in the past five years.

The authority clawed in more than £3 million in parking fines over the same time period. Southend Council's group manager for highways and traffic management Mehmet Mazhar defended the amount of money being charged and claimed parking enforcement was just one way the authority delivered transport strategies in the town. He said: "It ensures that motorists increasingly comply with parking restrictions."

"It also ensures improved road safety, and helps keep traffic moving on the highway network so residents directly benefit from this."

■ THE 'Dare to Dip' event held by Havens Hospices was launched and was the first ice water swim along the shores of Southend.

The temperature of the water was between 3 and 8 degrees Centigrade, when the estuary is at its coldest.

■ Review of 2013

April

■ A CONSULTATION was launched regarding the future of remaining children's centres in Southend.

Funding for the centres was cut £224,000 by Southend Council from this year to just over £1.1 million in 2015.

Four centres had already been shut down in the borough through a wave of previous cuts but the new consultation proposed to merge and axe more.

■ A Southend pub was awarded the CAMRA Community Pub of the month. The campaign aimed to encourage pubs to organise and market a number of events with the hope it will increase trade.

John Murray, who runs the AWARD: Phil Rottger and Victoria Howlden staff at The Old Trout Pub

Old Trout Tavern, in London Road, said it was mostly down to good customer service and variety of ales on offer that had grabbed the award. The first initiative for the Business Improvement District (BID) was launched with the introduction of a team of street rangers.

The BID is a self governing area of town from Southend town centre to the seafront and was voted for by businesses in November in 2012.

■ The development of the new Southend United football stadium moved a step closer.

Southend Council agreed to the club's demand of reducing a payment to the town centre from £6.2 million to £3.5 million.

Council chiefs said club chairman Ron Martin has to pay £1 million up front before plans got under way.

May

■ IT was announced more than 700 people could be made redundant at Southend following the closure of Lloyd's Bank, at Essex House.

Lloyd's Trade Union said 689 permanent staff plus a further 174 temporary staff would be losing their jobs by the end of the year.

A further 75 members of telephone banking and fraud operations staff were set to move to offices based in Chelmsford.

A spokesperson from the bank the decision was a difficult one to make.

■ Southend YMCA announced it would open a free as early as September.

CLOSURES: Leigh Town Council leader Councillor Carole Mulroney outside Leigh delivery office

The Southend Community School, was conceived by the charity with 18 years of experience delivering services to vulnerable children in the town.

The school would deal with key stage four children who cannot attend mainstream school.

■ Council leaders hit out at the Royal Mail for closing five of its delivery offices in Southend and Castlepoint.

The postal firm had already shut down the Great Wakering delivery office in March , but announced further closures to Shoeburyness, Leigh, Canewdon and Rochford.

RADIO LAUNCH: Staff from the station launch the new broadcast

June

■ A NEW radio station went live from Southend this month that was broadcast across the county.

Adventure Radio, the base of Southend and Chelmsford Radio, which is owned by businessman Phillip Miller went live with Radio Essex.

Radio Essex is now being broadcast 24 hours a day seven days a week.

Presenter Dom Atkins said he hoped the switch on would see people view the radio station in a different light.

■ A new sculpture was unveiled at Southend airport.

The unveiling was held by Mark Francois minister for state defence personnel, welfare and veterans to coincide with Armed Forces Week.

The installation called Searchlight Beacons, was created by sculptor John Atkin. John was personally funded by sculptor Henry Moore to study at the Royal College of Art and has followed in his footsteps by becoming a globally renowned artist.

■ A report commissioned by Fair Havens Hospice claimed the charity's main site in Chalkwell Avenue was no longer 'fit for purpose'.

The report was published by the hospice just weeks before a public inquiry into a new premises at Belton Way, Leigh.

July

■ ILLEGAL oyster pickers caught in Southend were forced to hand back a haul of 1,400 oysters that weighed 275kg.

Southend council's environmental health officers intercepted the men who had collected 11 large sacks of Pacific oysters without official safe authorisation.

The oyster pickers gave up their harvest after being warned of the consequences of not having the official papers. Council officers then returned the oysters to the Thames.

■ His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent re-named the iconic Southend Pier Cultural Centre, 'The Royal Pavilion'.

He unveiled the plaque bearing the building's new name on Tuesday, July 16, after officially opening the new RNLI lifeboat house on Southend seafront meeting RNLI crew members and supporters, and sharing in a short dedication service there.

■ Wilko Johnson was immortalised in a sign outside a pub.

The former Dr Feelgood guitarist, 65, was a regular at the Railway Hotel, in Southend, gigging there as well as drinking there.

Now his face has been painted on the sign that hangs outside by local artist Jack Melville.

■ Record amounts of people attended the Village Green festival in Chalkwell Park.

Wilko Johnson headlined the festival that saw more than 32,000 people gather to soak in the day of music, art and entertainment.

PROTEST: The Stand Up for Southend Libraries Campaign protesting last Saturday about library cuts

August

■ ONE of the largest stores on Southend High Street celebrated its centenary with a trip down memory lane.

The Marks & Spencer shop marked its anniversary with a special three day event, giving customers and staff from the past and present the chance to celebrate the store's significant milestone.

■ Protesters took to the streets to oppose cuts to libraries in Southend. The Stand Up for Southend Libraries Campaign welcomed the recent announcements from Southend Council that libraries would not be forced to close because of a shortage of volunteers. However, they pointed out library service cannot afford to rely on volunteers in the first place.

They said what is needed to keep a decent level of professional staffing is to enable volunteers to bring their enthusiasm and community spirit into branches.

■ It was announced the 2014 air show would have more of a military theme to it to celebrate the centenary of the First World War.

Tom Curtis, organiser of the show alongside John Delaney, said plans for the show were going well.

He said: "We've had a lot of help already from local businesses it shows that communities can pull together when they need to."

■ Four parks in Southend were awarded the Green Flag Award.

Chalkwell, Belfairs, Priory and Southchurch Parks each gained plaudits by the environmental charity, Keep Britain Tidy.

The national awards recognised the UK's best parks and green spaces.

Review of 2013

■ SOUTHEND'S lifeboat service was the busiest coastal station in the UK this summer.

Statistics released by the Royal National Lifeboat Institution showed 15 stations on the east coast of England launched 319 rescue missions this summer.

Southend launched a total of 104. Last year the station only launched 80 rescues.

■ Wilko Johnson signed a limited-edition guitar to be auctioned to raise cash for teenage cancer sufferers.

The black Telecaster with a red scratchplate – created by Fender in tribute to the Dr Feelgood legend – was to be auctioned to raise money for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

September

Wilko, who was diagnosed with terminal cancer in January and given 10 months to live, said his own experience of the disease had inspired him to contribute to the auction.

■ The new £800,000 Belfairs Woodland centre was officially opened.

The centre became an important gateway to the Belfairs and Daws Heath Living Landscape, where Essex Wildlife Trust and Southend Council are working together to protect ancient woodland and its wildlife. The wood-clad building includes products from Belfairs itself.

■ The Shorelines Festival of literature was announced.

The three-day festival in Leigh was originally the idea of poet Lemn Sissay who had been to Chalkwell Hall, looked out over the Estuary and said it would be a good idea to hold a festival dedicated to the sea.

NEW CHAPTER:
Author Martina Cole opened The Forum

■ THE £27 million Forum arts centre was opened.

The building in Elmer Square, Southend, was the first of its kind in the country.

Partnerships between Southend Council, the University of Essex and South East Essex College produced a cultural hub for the people of the town.

The Forum

October

combines a joint public and academic library, a new home for the Focal Point Gallery and a lecture theatre that can seat 200 people.

It also boasts a public square with a big screen.

■ Southend councillors called for a second investigation into the erosion of the town's foreshore.

The demand followed an Environment Agency commissioned report by Dr Andrew Bradbury over fears that dredging of the River Thames by port operator DP World was causing damage to the estuary.

The £6,000 report concluded there was no evidence of 'widespread erosion', and that mud flat movement was due to natural causes. The report was dismissed as 'nonsense' by Southend Council.

■ A PETITION opposed the proposed closure of Leigh Library.

Under plans to cut back services for libraries in the town only three of the six would be run by council staff, including the newly opened Forum.

The others would be run by volunteers and could be closed if no one comes forward to help. The petition was signed by 8,000 supporters of the Stand Up for Southend Libraries campaign.

What a difference a year makes!

It took exactly one year and one week for local slimmer Kelly Nichols to lose a staggering eight stone at her local Rosemary Conley Food & Fitness class!

Her instructor Mandy has been running classes for 17 years and offers a wide variety of choice including aerobics, circuits, and Kardy Interval- a 30 minute fitness programme run over six workouts combining high intensity bursts within normal aerobic activity. All classes are adapted to suit everyone, even if you've never exercised before. Mandy ensures you change your lifestyle, not just your eating habits.

Kelly joined her local class in Rayleigh on September 3, 2012, weighing a whopping 18 stone 8 lbs with a BMI of 44.6. By September 12, 2013, she weighed just 10 stone 7 lbs with a BMI of 25.3. She continues to go to class and now has a healthy BMI of 24.

Kelly, who can't believe how good it feels to have lost so much weight in just over a year, said: "Mandy has been such an inspiration, encouraging me and always there to support all of her slimmers. She has helped change my life for the better."

2014 is an even more exciting time for Mandy's classes as the whole company has just revealed a fresh rebrand with new members packs containing even more fabulous products to support your weight-loss journey. The new design really reflects how vibrant Mandy's classes are, and how much she has to offer.

"We are extremely excited about the company rebrand. We have worked closely with a third party company and undertaken a great deal of research to ensure the look and feel of the brand reflects the company as a whole, we are thrilled to reveal our brand new look," says Rosemary Conley CBE.

Rosemary Conley Food & Fitness is the only national slimming organisation in the UK to include a workout as well as dietary advice in all their classes.

Rosemary added: "We like to stay one step ahead of the latest fitness sensation by introducing new styles of exercise into our classes. Our aim is to make exercise fun and to encourage more people to take part."

Review of 2013

■ REPAIRS got underway after Essex was struck by a severe storm.

Debris on the road hindered ambulance crews during the early morning.

A tree fell on a car on Poynters Lane, in Shoeburyness, injuring a man in his 60s just before 7am. He was taken to Southend Hospital where his condition was not thought to be life-threatening.

Between midnight and 4pm firefighters attended 214 incidents across the county, which included flooding, fallen power lines, fallen trees and traffic accidents.

Boats were blown off their moorings. A dredger at Southend had to be pulled from sandbanks.

GORGEOUS: Southend Diwali celebrations

■ Hundreds of people gathered at Queensway's Hindu Temple to celebrate the Diwali festival.

The New Year celebrations, at BAPS Swaminarayan Sanstha, included festivities, while raising funds for BBC's Children in Need.

■ It was announced Leigh and Kent Elms libraries will stay open after overwhelming public opposition to their closure.

They are now run by a mixture of paid staff and volunteers.

A council consultation saw thousands of people oppose the cost-cutting proposals.

Adam Jones, councillor for St Laurence Ward, and one of the founders of Friends of Kent Elms Library, said: "I'm really pleased with this result so the people that the two libraries serve are not missing out on the facilities. It could have been a case of a straight vote to close one or the other. I think the council have made the right choice as the two libraries have very different people using them."

December

■ A MOTHER and son lost their lives in a car fire. Catherine Mhlaba, 45, and her son, Bekithemba Ali, 16, were found in a black Vauxhall Vectra in Thorpe Avenue, Thorpe Bay, on December 3, at 5.30pm.

The deaths were investigated by detectives from the Kent and Essex Serious Crime Directorate as a possible suicide and murder.

Their investigation looked at the possibility Catherine Mhlaba was responsible for murdering her son and taking her own life by starting the fire.

Post-mortem examinations took place on Friday, December 6. The pathologist has recorded the cause of death as burning and inhalation through combustion.

■ Treasures buried with the Prince of Prittlewell more than 1,000 years ago went on show at Southend Museum.

Items dramatically unearthed by archaeologists at Priory Crescent, Southend, in 2003, went on display at Southend Museum, in Victoria Avenue, and will be on show until next March.

■ The Essex Police marine unit was scrapped in a bid to save the force £36million in three years.

The decision was announced by Chief Constable Stephen Kavanagh. He said no police officers would be made redundant as they would take on new roles 'providing specialist knowledge and expertise in dealing with marine incidents'.

The police vessels could be sold, although the force would still have access to boats – either directly owned or 'hired as necessary'.

■ Reports of abuse cases involving vulnerable adults in Southend rose by more than 450 per cent since 2007.

Figures showed 682 cases of abuse being reported to the social services compared to just 123 back in 2007. The council claimed the increase was due to better detection, not more people being abused.

Scrap Cars

End of the road
for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'OT' etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of: (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement; (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
8. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, will be charged to the advertiser.
9. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
10. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
11. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
12. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
13. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
14. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
15. (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
16. (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
17. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement (s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
18. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
19. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
20. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
21. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
22. Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
23. Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
24. Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
25. Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Trade Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
26. Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

No wonder paper

Did you know that forests in Europe, which provide wood for making into paper and many other widely used materials, are 30% larger than in 1950? In fact they're increasing by 1.5 million football pitches every year.*

Paper is a powerful communication material and it's made from natural and renewable wood. Which is all great news if you need the impact that only printed documents can deliver.

HURST EQUALISER SALVAGES POINT

Southend United

Southend United 1 Rochdale 1 Sky Bet League Two

By Rowland Lyons at Roots Hall
SOUTHEND had to be content with a point after Kevan Hurst's first-half stunner cancelled out Jamie Allen's fine early opener on Friday night.

Despite a lively start with the recalled, Will Atkinson, testing Josh Lillis, the Blues fell behind on 14 minutes when youngster, Allen netted with a precise, left foot curler after the home defence had failed to clear an Ian Henderson drive.

Dale went on to dominate and Luke Prosser appeared to suffer a head injury on 20 minutes when clearing under pressure from Preston loanee, Graham Cummings after Michael Rose had swung in a free-kick.

Southend – with five in midfield – were finding Rochdale a hard nut to crack and it was the visitors who could consider themselves unlucky not to double their lead on 31 minutes when a brave, double Prosser block first denied Hogan and then put his body on the line to deny Henderson. The stopper was reportedly taken ill at the break and had to be replaced by Mark Phillips.

With time running out, Daniel Bentley's long punt was helped on by Barry Corr and Michael Timlin into the path of Hurst, who netted his eighth goal of the season with a fine finish that Lillis could probably have done better to block.

Southend – buoyed their leveller – briefly threatened straight after the break – but Corr's lofted effort was well wide and Rochdale – only one place below the Shrimpers – continued to ask all the questions and should have restored their lead with Michael Rose and former loanee, Matt Lund, wasting good opportunities.

In worsening conditions, and with chances at a premium, Southend could have nicked a late win, but Corr shaved the Rochdale crossbar with a header six minutes from time, to leave boss, Phil Brown, admitting: 'I thought a point was the right result as I knew Rochdale's work rate is good, as they in the same place as us in the table. But, almost in the pursuit of winning, we almost lost it as we were playing football in the wrong areas. The best place to play football is in their box and I just thought we could do a little better'.

'It could have gone either way and we are two decent sides in this division. But, I thought when we went a goal down there were two turning points. One was the determination Luke Prosser showed with a stop on the line to keep us in it and the other was that bit of 'magic' Kevan Hurst is possessing and he took his goal well. The conditions didn't suit a game of football, but I thought both sides coped well'.

Dale boss, Keith Hill, added: 'It was a tough game, tough conditions and a tough two-day journey and we showed our mettle and mentality and I believed if we had scored a second goal, we would have won the game. We had to weather a bit of a storm in the second, but their equalizer was a bit fortunate. However, I am pleased to come away from Southend with a point'.

Goalscorer, Kevan Hurst said: 'The character of the boys is top-drawer. We went a goal down, but we did well to get something out of the game. I am very pleased with the goal. Fortunately, I has dropped to me and I managed to get a shot in past my old team mate, Josh Lillis'.

Eight-goal Hurst concluded: 'We are going into the next few games with the belief we can win – and we must have that if we want to get promoted'.

Matches hit by weather

Non-league round up by Brian Jeeves
THE inclement weather took its toll on the local football scene with a number of games falling by the wayside.

In the Skril Conference South, Concord Rangers game with Havant & Waterlooville and Chelmsford City's visit to high flying Eastleigh were both casualties of the wet conditions, and it was little different in the Ryman Premier division as Billericay Town, Grays Athletic and AFC Hornchurch were also frustrated by cancellations.

However, Canvey Island's trip to Kingstorian went ahead. The Gulls grabbed an early lead through Harrison Chatting, but the home side hit back during the second period to win 3-1 in front of a decent crowd of 335.

Several matches in the Ryman North beat the elements. Avelley featured in the game of the day, as two goals each from Kyle Asante and Jay Leader saw the Millers recover from 2-0 down to win 4-3 at Wroxham. Thurrock picked up a useful 1-1 draw at AFC Sudbury, while there were 2-0 defeats for Burnham Ramblers, at home to Waltham Abbey, and Barkingside, at Cheshunt.

The Essex Senior League programme was almost completely wiped out. Only Sawbridgeworth's game with Takeley went ahead, the home side winning an entertaining encounter 2-1 thanks to a brace from Das.

Southend fall short at Shelford in strong wind

Rugby

Shelford 16 Southend 10

THE first game of the second half of the season took Southend to Shelford. They had beaten their neighbours and rivals Cambridge last week.

The expected rain did not materialise and the pitch was reasonably firm. However, there was a strong breeze in Shelford's favour for the first half. They capitalised on it when they were awarded an early penalty fifty meters out and Elliott Bales long range kick sailed over. 3-0.

Southend were looking contained and committed and forced a penalty of their own. Bradley Burrs terrific kick against the wind sailed into touch a few meters short of Shelford's try line. Harry Hudson caught the ball in what was to be the first of a match long series of good lineout play from Southend. Gathering the ball in he became the fulcrum of a determined Southend drive that took them over the line for prop Todd Bailey to touch down. Burr judged the wind perfectly with his conversion kick. With only seven minutes gone it was 3-7 to Southend.

Play continued with Southend trying to exert themselves against some determined Shelford defence as they successfully slowed play down whenever they could and fought at every breakdown to disrupt Southend distribution. So much so that eventually Southend scrum half Lee Sandberg put his boot into a ruck to try and release the ball. Unfairly, judged youthful referee Craig Maxwell-Keys from Cambridge and yellow carded him for foul play.

The next ten minutes saw Shelford trying to take advantage as they stormed forward at every opportunity. Southend did their best to resist but were undone as Mr Maxwell-Keys ran between the post to award a penalty try. The easy conversion put Shelford back in front at 10-7.

Sandberg came back on and apart from a successful penalty kick from Southend's Bradley Burr to level the score at 10-10. The rest of the half became a bit mundane with Southend obviously looking to wait for the second half and wind advantage to go ahead and win the game.

Shelford had other ideas though and it became obvious their plan was to deny Southend possession and that they did. Southend rarely saw the ball for the first 20 minutes of the half and when they did they either kicked it away or were penalised.

They became more and more frustrated with the way the game was developing and became even more so when the referee showed his second yellow card, again to a Southend player. This time it was back row Jackson for slowing play down. The subsequent penalty kick put Shelford back in the lead at 13-10.

Bradley Burr did have a chance to level things but his kick from a rare Southend penalty sailed wide. Almost immediately Shelford were awarded another penalty in front of the posts and Bale nailed the kick. 16-10 with twenty minutes to go.

Back to full strength Southend still believed they could win this frustrating game and they piled forward. Having been awarded a scrum from a Shelford knock on they won the ball and kept it in at the back as they heaved their way forward.

The Shelford scrum half threw himself on the floor alongside the scrum and stuck his hand in to disrupt the drive. The referee was on the other side of the scrum, but the touch judge was only yards away. Southend players and supporters were unhappy and even the Shelford supporters were surprised when no call materialised. The ball came out loose and was retrieved by Shelford.

Minutes later Southend broke away and exchanged passes down the wing for Danny Cleare to touch down. Their joy was short lived as the touch judge decided the final pass went forward.

Not deterred they continued to press forward until they were five meters out. Another cynical slowing down offence from a Shelford player led to another penalty. One of the frustrated Southend players made a remark to the referee, perhaps reminding him of his previous decisions following similar offences earlier, whereupon he immediately reversed the penalty allowing Shelford to clear their lines and the game ended shortly after.

A contest and result that did nothing to attract new spectators to the game particularly as the most memorable contributions were from the officials.

Next up is Redruth at home on January 4.

High-Tech keeping homes safe from the elements

(Advertisement Feature)

Over 70% of homes in the UK have a flat roof incorporating a mineral felt finish - that's seven out of ten home owners with a potential flat roof problem...

Mineral felt is prone to a slow breakdown often allowing water ingress to cause unnecessary problems before being visibly detected within the home. Mineral felt has a tendency to blister throughout summer months and eventually becoming brittle and cracking during colder periods, cracking will also appear around exposed edge's and other points of detail i.e. around pipes, skylights, flashings into brickwork or under tiles etc. These areas are where workmanship is most crucial. Felt also attracts moss & algae further degrading the roof surface.

It is very important that every homeowner is made aware that insurance companies no longer cover or accept any liability for any external or internal damage caused by a leaking felt roof. Unless it can be proven storm damage any such claim is categorised as wear & tear or poor workmanship leaving the homeowner with the financial burden.

In 1999 High-Tech Roofing first introduced the most advanced flat roof technology to the homeowner. Protan who are based in Norway have a pedigree in the design and manufacture of waterproofing materials dating back to 1939 producing the first roofing membrane in 1971. Protan is our preferred PVC single-ply flat roofing system. Protan will cope with all climates as millions of square metres are installed here and abroad with a proven track record stretching over four decades. Protan is predominantly an architect specified roofing system winning many awards and serving the very competitive commercial sector.

High-Tech have installed and proudly guarantees over 7000 domestic projects along with an untarnished reputation.

A High-Tech roof is dimensionally stable and solar reflective, it is unaffected by climate change and 100% resistant to moss & algae. As it is vapour permeable it can never blister or become brittle and crack. We will create an anti-slip 100% storm resistant watertight roof, maintenance free and guaranteed never to leak.
